flowprofiler®

dimension lab | collaboration

What you can expect:

This dimension lab explores the power skill Collaboration. You will receive a full workbook and your session will be led by a certified flowprofiler® trainer. The flowprofiler® dimension labs are 1-hour virtual sessions designed to give you space to focus and reflect on your professional development. You will not be asked to share your results or takeaways.

Objectives:

- ☆ Define the dimension Collaboration.
- ☆ Review your flowprofiler® or motivationflow® results.
- ☆ Identify actions to develop your personal excellence.
- ☆ Provide you with tips and techniques.

You will learn:

- ☆ The role that Collaboration plays in the workplace.
- ☆ Define Collaboration.
- ☆ The flowprofiler® Collaboration triangle.

Who is this training for?

Anyone who is looking to develop their work-based power skills. Specifically, their Collaboration.

Pre-requisites:

- ☆ Ideally, you will have completed either the motivationflow® or the flowprofiler® assessments.
- ☆ Have had your development report fed back to you.

You will need:

- ☆ A copy of your development report.
- ☆ Access to the workbook (provided).
- ☆ In order to use the interactive workbook features, you will need the most recent version of Adobe Reader/Acrobat or Apple Preview.
