Description of processing

The following is a broad description of the way Holst processes personal information.

Reasons/purposes for processing information

We process personal information to enable us to provide training to our customers and clients; to promote our services, to maintain our own accounts and records and to support and manage our employees.

We are the UK Supplier of the McQuaig Psychometric system and process data that the Client (the Data Controller) collects and controls.

The McQuaig Institute of Executive Development (MIED) is the sub-processor of the McQuaig Psychometric System and a Model Clause Contract is in place between Holst and MIED. Relevant Appendices are available on request.

Type/classes of information processed

We process information relevant to the above reasons/purposes. This may include:

- personal details
- business activities of the person whose personal information we are processing
- training details
- goods and services
